BIO

Danish born, based in London since 1999.

Flemming has over 20 years experience as a DP, from studio - to location production, shooting all over the world.

He has lensed theatrical released Feature Films, TV Drama, TV commercials and a long history in Music Videos and award winning Short Films.

Flemming is the kind of cinematographer that always strives to have a greater understanding for a story's emotional content, the visuals needs to look good but also have meaning that will translate into the right visual structure.

His first feature, Pusher was theatrical released in 2010, as well as lensing many short films, documentaries, music videos and commercials . Flemming now is starting to work in TV Drama.
